towards a more sustainable Buffalo Niagara

Royalton Town Hall
Royalton, NY
April 24, 2013
The time is now...

We’re working together to build a more sustainable region.

Our many efforts to grow our economy and build livable communities are coming into alignment.

#oneregionfwd
We have an opportunity to carry this momentum toward a prosperous future and move the region forward.
Collaboration Pays Off

Public, private sector and nonprofit partners from the Framework for Regional Growth working group worked together to pursue funds from the HUD Sustainable Communities Regional Planning Grant program.

One Region Forward challenges us to decide what kind of change we desire.

What do you want your community to look like for future generations?
What does sustainability mean for our region and how are we defining it for Buffalo Niagara?

What does sustainability look like in Royalton?
We are already creating a practice of sustainable development...

Hamlin Park Rain Barrels
Net Zero Energy House
Promised Land Community Supported Agriculture
Niagara County Brownfields Program
Village of Hamburg Main Street
What if a hundred local farms -- instead of three or four -- provided fresh produce to dining tables in our cities and suburbs?

What would be the impact on nutrition and energy use?
What if thousands of acres of old industrial lands were more quickly cleaned up and made ready for redevelopment?

What would be the impact on public health and our economy?
What if dozens of neighborhoods -- instead of one or two -- used rain barrels and other mechanisms to capture stormwater on site?

What would be the impact on infrastructure costs and water quality?
What if thousands of homes in our region -- not just a few -- produced as much energy as they consume?

What would be the impact on family budgets and on our carbon footprint?
What if all of our urban commercial districts, village centers, and suburban strips were safe, comfortable, and interesting for bikes and pedestrians?

What would be the impact on energy consumption and our quality of life?
Where We Have Been

One Region Forward will provide a way for broad community leadership, elected officials, the business community, our dense network of community-based organizations, and concerned citizens from city, suburb, village, and rural areas to participate in a conversation that will drive planning and action.

Where We Are Today

Building off of the foundation so far and collaborating to inform the work that will feed directly into the plan

Continuing to engage our public and collect feedback on vision and values online

Forming Working Teams of subject matter experts and local decision-makers to create the road map

Performing policy analysis and best practice research on collaborating regionally around sustainable development
Where We Are Going

SPRING 2012 – WINTER 2015

Keeping the collaboration going through Research, Planning and Education

Chart a Roadmap for a sustainable future – where we want to go, how we get there, and metrics that tell us if we’re moving in the right direction

Launch a Citizen Planning School that can build community-level capacity to promote sustainability at our local levels

Create tools and capacity-building opportunities to support smarter decisions by our civic and business leaders
